At a hearing in Newbury on June 2 the selectmen of Newbury alleged that the grade crossing on the main highway beween Wells River and Newbury was one of the most dangerous crossings on the Boston & Maine railroad and ought to be eliminated. After an inspection of the premises it was decided that the railroad was too poor to stand for the removal of the crossing during the 1915 season. An order was issued calling for the completion of a thirty-foot roadway which will make a detour and avoid the grade crossing by Dec. 1, 1916. The ex-pense incurred in the construction of the new road will be borne in the following roportions: Boston & Maine, 65 per ent; town of Newbury, 10 per cent; state of Vermont, 25 per cent.
